Letter from W. Jopp Esquire, Executive Engineer, Krishna Eastern Division, to the Superintending Engineer, 2nd Circle, dated 27th January 1891 No 5067.

With reference to your No 2415 H.S. of 30-12-90, I have the honor to inform you that in this Office No 3589 of 27-10-90 it was requested that another Overseer in place of Rangaramanjayya whose services were dispensed with, might be appointed. In anticipation of the appointment of this Overseer, the services of the clerk who was working under Rangaramanjayya were retained. If the services had been dispensed with, it would have been difficult to procure the services of a qualified man when Rangaramanjayya's successor Balakrishna Iyer joined this Division.

* W. Subbarayudu

2. During the period, viz., from 11-10-90 upto 24-11-90 on which date Overseer T. Balakrishna Iyer joined this Division, the clerk was engaged in copying Estimates &c of the tanks now in charge of Overseer Balakrishna Iyer.

3. Under these circumstances, I request that you will be good enough to obtain necessary sanction authorising authorising the Examiner to audit the clerk's pay for the above period.
