READ—the following paper:—

From Captain R. T. LAWLEY, Military Secretary to the Right Honorable the Governor, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Guindy Park, 21st February 1891, No. 1126.

I have the honor to forward, herewith, a plan and an estimate for Rs. 3,134 for constructing a coach-house and stables for the Marine Villa, and request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the same.

From the Consulting Architect to Government, dated 2nd March 1891, No. 3631.

ORDER—dated 9th March 1891, No. 665 W., Public Works.

The estimate, amounting to Rs. 3,134, for constructing a coach-house and stables for the Marine Villa, Madras, is sanctioned on the understanding that the cost can be met from the normal allotment for Government Houses.

2. The Consulting Architect to Government will report what amount can be spent on the work during the current official year.

3. This sanction has been registered as Provincial No. 106 W. of 1890-91 and classified as Civil Buildings, Original Works.

In answer to yours of the 27th Inst:
I have the honor to state, when the Governor's staff have their full complement of horses
I calculate that there will not be room
in the stabling attached to Government House Madras, for the Warlike horses. There are only forty stalls and when H. E.'s staff have got together all their horses and ponies I compute that they will all be full.

From the College of Agriculture to Govt No. 3631-2 d/21 March 1891

Notwithstanding the attempt that has been made to render these buildings ornamental I think offices on the site proposed will be an eyesore. And it is understood that room for the horses' harnesses cannot be found in the extensive stabling attached to Govt House.
