R. B. Lambert Esq.
Executive Engineer
Coimbatore D^o

To

The Superintending Engineer
4th Circle, Coimbatore

Sir,

With reference to your Memo No 977 C. & D. dated 6th ultimo, I have the honor to report that during my halt at Coimbatore after handing over charge of the division
-sion, I had to keep up two esta-blishments, one at Coimbatore and one at Salem.

It is ruled that daily al-lowance is drawn only during absence from Head Quarters, which rule is applicable in my case. Salem became my Head Quarters from the time I handed over charge of the Division

-sion and I consider that I am entitled to daily allowance for any

During Mr.
Marshall's absence
on leave I held charge of the Division in addition to the Salem Sub D^o

any subsequent halt at Combatore on duty, and under orders of the Divisional Officer, provided that halt does not exceed 10 days.

I have the
G. B. Lambert
Engineer

No. 69 of 5-2-91.

Copy submitted to the Chief Engineer P. W. Department with a request that it will be good enough to obtain the orders of Government thereon.

2. The disallowance in question refers to Mr. Lambert's claim for daily allowance Rs. 15 for the 30th September and 1st and 2nd October 1889 for his stay at Combatore after handing over charge of the Combatore Division to Mr. Martin on the forenoon of 30th September 1890 on his return from privilege leave. Mr.

Lambert held the charge of the Division without prejudice to his own duties as officer of Salem Sub Division during Mr. Martin's absence on leave.
3. The Examiner based his disallowance on article 1154 of Civil Service Regulations.

OFFICE NOTE No. 1270.

W.

Your office note No. 736 C. dated 10th.
February 1891.

The disallowance was made in accordance with the invariable practice in similar cases, which are not at all uncommon, and the disallowance seems to me quite correct.

2. Granting that Salem became Mr. Lambert's head quarters on completion of his relief in Coimbatore, Civil Service Regulations article II54 does not say that an officer absent from head quarters is entitled to daily allowance (or entitled thereto except in specified case). What it says is that the allowance is only drawn when absent i.e. it cannot be drawn unless he is absent, but mere absence from head quarters does not necessarily qualify even when the conditions expressly excepted do not obtain.

3. Civil Service Regulations article II55 shows that the essential "absence" must be caused by the officer.

leaving his head quarters and not by his head quarters leaving him. The whole code of travelling allowance rules is based on the presumption that to become entitled to travelling allowance, an officer must do, or have done, something involving cost to himself; this he does when he leaves his head quarters, but not when his head quarters leave him, by being transferred from one place to another.

4. Moreover if Salem became his head quarters on 30th. September 1889, then Civil Service Regulations article II54(b) comes in; Mr. Lambert was on transfer from that date, and under the rule quoted (article II54(b)), he could draw no halting allowance.
