Resolution—dated 24th January 1891, Mis. No. 574.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. The proposal to amalgamate the Madras office with the Bombay office has been abandoned—vide G.O., dated 16th January 1891, No. 336. The question raised by the Collector may, therefore, be discussed on its own merits.

3. The Board fully agrees with the Superintendent that it will be best to postpone the execution of the alteration and consider if a new building should not be erected in their stead.

4. The result of the alterations will probably be far from satisfactory and will certainly be costly, and, as the Superintendent points out, they may turn out to be quite insufficient.

5. The Board recommends, therefore, that Government order the postponement of the proposed alterations and authorize the Board to consider the matter afresh.

Order—dated 6th March 1891, No. 1524, Revenue.

The Government concurs in considering that it will be best to erect an entirely new building on the site of the existing office. G.O., No. 907, dated 13th November 1890, approving plan and estimate for making alterations to the existing building, will accordingly be cancelled.
