H.S. No. 632 dated 5th March 1891

To the Secy to the Govt. of Bombay P.W.D.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No. E/145 dated 17th February 1891, I am directed to forward a copy of para 935 Madras P.W. Code, which contains the rules in force in this Presidency for regulating temporary works establishment under Executive Engineers, and shows shows the powers of Supty. and Executive Engineers with respect to the appointment of such establishments.

2. It will be seen that there is no restriction as to the classes of establishment whose pay may be charged to works, but the condition enforced in audit is that clerical or petty establishments appointed under these rules must be employed for the purposes of some specified work or works, and not for general purposes in a division -
