READ—the following paper :—

From E. J. SEWELL, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to the Superintending Engineer, III Circle, dated 16th March 1891, No. 755.

I have the honor to state that the President, Taluk Boards, Pullampet and Sidhout, recommends that the old taluk cutcherry at Badvel may be used for the Local Fund Middle School, Badvel. I therefore request you will be good enough to inform me if that building can be given over for the school-house.

No. 3584.

Referred to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department. The undersigned knows of no other use the building can be fit to and supports the recommendation.
