OFFICE NOTE No. 4488.

To

W.

The General Superintendent P. W. Workshops, in refunding the earnest money of certain unsuccessful tenderers, simply obtained from them the surrender of the original receipts (endorsed by them in all but three cases) which were granted by him when the sums were deposited. His attention was therefore drawn in the Miscellaneous Objectionable Items letter on the accounts of the division for April 1891 to the rule on the subject in Code para 1642 note (4) and he was requested to obtain proper receipts duly stamped. In reply however he states that the parties in question are not known to him and that therefore he is unable to obtain fresh vouchers.

2. Under the circumstances I request that you will obtain the approval of Government to my admitting the charge as per accompanying receipts (central office vouchers Nos. 5 to 16 of April 1891) in lieu of stamped vouchers.
