OFFICE NOTE No. 4382

To

W.

The decision of the Government of India communicated with G.O.No. 1838 W. dated 8th.July 189I in regard to the admissibility of full pay to Mr. A.S. Russell Executive Engineer from 20th.February 189I has apparently been based on a misunderstanding of the facts of the case.

2. Mr.Russell joined the head quarters (Madras) of the Buckingham Canal Division(to which he was posted on return from furlough)on the forenoon of 20th.February 189I;but he did not assume charge of cash and stores(as shown by the transfer papers)in the sense of P.W.D.Code para 383 until the afternoon of 24th.February 189I: his "duty"should therefore apparently be held to have begun on that date,in which case,Mr. Russell should be considered as on subsidiary leave up to 24th.February 189I, & allowed furlough pay under Civil Service Regulations article 362(b) for the period 20th.to 24th.February 189I.

3. The point at issue is whether an officer who joins the head quarters of the division or office to which he is posted, on return from furlough, but who does not assume charge of cash & stores in the sense of P.W. Code para 383 until after a later date, is entitled (a) to full pay from the date of joining the division or office, or (b) from date of his assumption of charge under code para 383. No question is raised as to the admissibility of full pay from date of assumption of charge under code para 383, to date of completion of taking over charge under code para 391.

4. I would therefore ask that the question may again be referred to the Government of India for a definite ruling on the point at issue.

The Secretary to the Govt. of India P.W.D.

Sir,

Recd
16 Aug

With reference to your letter No. 1636 G dated 18 June 1891, I am directed to forward copy of an office note from the Examiner P.W. Accts No. 4382 dated 4 August 1891, asking for further information as to the date from which an officer returning from furlough should begin to draw the full pay of his grade.

2. My letter No. 1363W
dated 19 May 1891 stated the opinion of this Govt that full pay
should begin immediately an officer joins
his division for duty,
irrespective of the period occupied
in taking over charge and I am to say that H.E. the Governor in Council is still of the same opinion. The Examiner surmises
that the decision conveyed in your letter above quoted was based on a misunderstanding of the facts of the case, but I am to state that so far as regards this Govt, there was no such misunderstanding. Mr. Russell, whose case led to the enquiry joined the Buckingham Canal Division for the purpose of taking over charge on the 20 February 1891, and in accordance with the decision of the Govt. of India this Govt has ordered the admission of full

pay to him from that date.
