2269/3

No. 1334 G. dated the 18th May 1891, I am directed to state that it has been ascertained that the special (famine) leave granted to Mr. C. Vincent from the 29th October 1880 to the 28th April 1881, with full pay allowance, counted against furlough.

2. In connection with this, I am to forward an extract from the memorandum dated 4th February 1891 by the Accountant General, India Office, and to request that the excess due at 2 shillings the rupee may be paid at the official rate of exchange for the last financial year on that portion of the special [illegible] allowance which was furlough allowance during the period in question, and was actually paid in England and not in India.

The amount due should be paid to Mr. Vincent's Agents, Messrs. Balmer Lawrie and Company, Calcutta.
