Literary Institute Namakkal

Collector and Magistrate of the District, Salem

Respected Sir

With reference to your endorsement
No. 2002 dated 24-11-90 on the letter of the District Superintendent of Police No. 1399 dated 17th Idem directing that the building in which the Literary Institute is located be vacated for the Police Station, I beg respectfully on behalf of the members to represent as follows:-

- (2) When the Literary Institute was started in the beginning of 1877, a member of the Institute waited upon the late C. J. Longley, Esquire, the then Collector and requested that the building known as the old Munsif's Court house which was in a much dilapidated condition owing to long disuse, might be handed over for the location of the Institute; and accordingly Mr. Longley gave the building without any condition whatsoever

(3) The necessary repairs were executed at a cost of about 100 Rs. to the building and the Literary Institute was located therein; and it has ever since remained there.

(4) A short time before the jubilee of Her Majesty the Empress, the building was again repaired at a cost of about 150 Rs, and the Victoria Library which was opened in commemoration of the jubilee was also placed therein as an adjunct to the Literary Institute.

It would thus appear that the members were under the impression these thirteen years, that the Government did not intend to take back the building, but on the other hand, they considered it as belonging to the Literary Institute, and under such an impression they spent a pretty large sum of money on its repairs - indeed a sum for which a new building could have been erected.

Rs 100 + 150 = 250.

Under these circumstances I humbly beg to request you will be pleased to reconsider the matter and allow the Literary Institute to remain in the building.

I beg to remain

To

Chief
The Secretary to Government,

Public Department.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge for the orders of Government, a petition from the Secretary to "The Literary Institute", Namahal requesting that the Institute may be allowed to continue in a portion of the old Munsiff's court building there which it has occupied for the last thirteen years.

2. On the construction of a new Taluk Cutcherry at Namahal, the Dis-trict Munsiff's court there vacated the building it till then occupied and went into the old Taluk Cutcherry building.

3. It appears that subsequently, in the year 1877, part of the old Messrs. Riff's Court building was occupied by the Literary Institute under the alleged verbal orders of the then Collector Mr. Langley and that in 1879 a boys' primary school started by private enterprise was located in the remaining portion of that building which remained unoccupied. This latter was eventually taken under the management of the Local Fund Board and thus the whole building continued to be occupied by the Literary Institute and a school (latterly a girls' school) under the management of the Local Fund Board.

4. In November 1879, the Police Department was asked to vacate the overgrown shed it till then occupied as as a Station House as it had only been lent to them by the D.P.W. who did not then require it, and as the premises occupied by the Literary Institute was the only Government building available I ordered the Institute to vacate it for the Police Station which it accordingly did.

5. I cannot ascertain now under what conditions the Institute was allowed to occupy the premises from which it was recently ousted; nor is the Institute in possession of any record to prove it. It is stated however that it has spent sums for the repair and upkeep of the buildings to the extent of about Rs 350.

I have the honor to be Yours most obedient servant
