In connection with this, the Rt. have raised the question whether the site - compound &c - on which the Bungalow is built was included in the purchase money.

Should it certainly should be - Do you know anything about it.

The question as regards the title has not been raised by the Supt. Ever & there is nothing about it in previous papers.

It is generally understood that unless the material only for a house are sold, the sale carries with it possession of the site.
