Copy of a Report, on the Character of the Training the Assistant Engineers appointed in 1889 have received during the year's practical course concluded on the 31st August 1890. — (Dated 1st September 1890.)

3. Messrs F. G. R. Dawson and A. G. Romilly have been in the Locomotive and Carriage workshops of the Great Western Railway, — and have employed their time in the foundry and erecting shops, also in watching the construction of a large gasometer on a new telescopic principle. They have also had a short practical course in engine running, and have visited, and made notes on the works under construction at the Tower of London Bridge, the Dow and Shireley Railway, and Manchester new water supply at Thirlmere. Mr. Dawson has also devoted a good deal of time and labour to the study of the geology of the district in its relation to the water supply at the works at Swindon. —

6. Messrs. W. Jenkins and W. J.
Howley

Howley have been engaged on the Cantref reservoir works of the Cardiff Waterworks. The works consist of excavation in loose rock in the heading for the concrete tongue forming the base of the dam, concrete of an excellent quality, brickwork in valve chambers, &c. stonework in byewash, puddle, and earthbank, Messrs Jenkins and Howley have been actively employed as assistants to the Engineer, in setting out, inspecting, and measuring work.

All communications
