No. 12 I.

Note by the Chief Engineer for Irrigation.

The Tank Restoration Investigation Party, which was at work in the Chingleput district, was in September 1889 moved away as the investigation was too far ahead of execution. It now seems advisable that works should be got ready in the Tiruvallúr and Ponnéri taluks, portions only of which were touched by the investigations carried out, and it is suggested that a Tank Restoration Party consisting of—may be started for preparing plans and estimates for works in those taluks. This party does not require a special officer and may work direct under the orders of the Superintending Engineer, V Circle, who was for some time in charge of the Tank Restoration operations. The cost of the party for the current year may be met from probable savings and that for next year will be provided for in the final issue of the budget estimate of that year. The proposition statement for the current and ensuing years is enclosed.

Inasmuch as the services of the temporary overseers are urgently required in the Chingleput Dn. for famine relief works, it is proposed to appoint an additional overseer on Rs 60 per mensem to the Division. The cost can be met from the savings under Temply Establishment.

The appointment of the Overseer referred to in the accompg draft G.O. will create an excess of one on the sanctd number, but as more posts will have to be filled up when returning ill health — & as many cases it seems probable that such men will be required in Chingleput
