Government of Madras.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT,

Cotacamund 4th April

1891.

Read the following:-

From the Quarter Master General, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Cotacamund 26 March 1891, No. 655-M.W.

Adverting to G.O. No. 647 W, dated 17th March 1885, in which Government sanctioned the maintenance of the Military roads in the Station of Bangalore being made over to the Bangalore Municipality with an annual grant of Rs 6,300 for their upkeep, am desired to say that this course has not proved satisfactory of late years and the roads are not considered to have been maintained in the condition they should have been for the above sum.

2. The above procedure was advocated by the Superintending Engineer, T. Lincoln, in 1885, partly on the score of the very weak Public Works Department Staff at Bangalore, and also to allow of their being placed under one authority, viz the President of the Municipal
