Porter, Acting Inspector General of Police to the Superintending Engineer and A.C.E. dated Madras 20th March

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the D.P.W. plan and estimate for a station House at Alur received from the Superintendent of Police, Bellary for my countersignature and submission to Government for sanction were returned uncountersigned to that Office on 9th December 1890 for file in the District Office as the work was postponed for the present but I observe from the D.P.W.
Budget (Preliminary Issue) for 1891-92 that the work has been sanctioned by you, and also an appropriation of Rs. 2120-0-0 made for it. I have therefore the honor to ask you to be good enough to inform me if the entry therein made is correct. If the entry is not correct, I would ask that it may be removed from the final Issue of the Budget. True copy!
