OFFICE NOTE No. 2022

4

To

W.

The rules relating to the adjustment of different classes of transactions between England and India are now contained in several paragraphs (204I to 2050 B) of the Code, and it is difficult to tell at once what is the rule relating to a particular class of transaction. To obviate this difficulty I propose to give the substance of the rules in a tabular form, such as that herewith put up, to be substituted for the code paragraphs, so that the method of adjusting any particular transaction can be seen at a glance, and I shall be obliged if you will obtain the approval of the Government to this arrangement.

2. This is one of many modifications of the code which would make it more easily intelligible, and therefore improve it, but which not being absolutely necessary, might be deferred until either the Code as a whole, or the particular page affected, is reprinted; but it is not desirable to introduce material changes in the course of reprinting which have not been definitely made beforehand by standing order, and in such cases, subject to the approval of Government, I would propose to obtain approval to the proposed standing order and thus hold over the printing and issue of it until the code, or the page concerned, is to be reprinted, when the same type can be used for the two operations.
