MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From Major-General E. H. H. COLLEN, C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of India, Marine Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, 13th March 1891, No. 230.

The Examiner of Marine Accounts having raised the question whether the charges on account of the British India Steam Navigation Company's steamer Kistna, recently hired for the inspection of the Laccadives, should be debited to "Marine" or "Civil," he has been informed that they should be adjusted under the former head.

2. In communicating this decision for the information of the Government of Madras, I am to ask that, under the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council, arrangements for hiring or chartering vessels, the charge for which will fall on the Imperial Marine estimates, may be made in future through the Director of Marine.

ORDER—dated 30th March 1891, No. 118, Marine.

Paragraph 1 will be communicated to the Collector of Malabar and the Accountant-General, and paragraph 2 to Departments of the Secretariat and the Presidency Port Officer, for information and guidance.
