READ—the following paper:—

From G. D. WYBROW, Esq., Superintending Engineer, I Circle, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Ianamilli, 11th March 1892, No. 2165 G.D.

I have the honour to bring to your notice that the new District Munsif's Court-house at Amalapuram, in the Godavari Western division, will be completed and handed over to the Judicial Department shortly.

2. The Superintendent of Post offices, Cocanada division, requested the transfer of the old court-house at the above place to the Postal Department for the location of the Post office there, which, he says, is now accommodated in a rented building, and which is in every way unsuited for the purpose.

3. The District Judge, Godavari district, informs me that the old court-house is not required in the Judicial Department.

4. I therefore beg to recommend that the building in question may be transferred to the Postal Department for location of Post office after it is vacated by the Judicial Department.

ORDER—dated 1st April 1892, No. 1066 W., Public Works.

The building may be transferred to the Postal Department if it is not required for any Provincial purpose, regarding which the Collector should be consulted.
