The humble petition of Edith -
Emily Taylor, widow of Henry
Scott Taylor, late Superintendent of Works Periyar Project, Madras
Public Works Department.

Humbly Sheweth

1. That your petitioner's late husband entered the service of the Indian Government in the Madras Public Works Department from Cooper's Hill on October 1st 1875 as Assistant Engineer 2nd Grade.
2. That he served sixteen years including one and a half years' furlough and attained the rank of Executive Engineer 2nd Grade.
3. That he would by the rules of the Department have been entitled in four more years to a pension of Rupees four thousand per annum.
4. That he was killed while in the execution of his duty by a terrible machine accident the particulars of which are given in Supplement A.
5. That ^{had} he only been injured and in Capacitate

Capacitated for duty he would have been entitled to a sick pension of Rupees two thousand six hundred at the exchange rate of one shilling and ninepence.

6. That the wives of officers in the army killed in action receive a pension of one hundred and forty pounds per annum and twenty one pounds per annum for each child.

7. That the widow of the telegraph officer lately killed in Manipur received a pension of one hundred pounds per annum and eighteen pounds for each child.

8. That your petitioner and her child get no pension whatever and are left with an income of about Rupees five hundred and forty per annum which is totally inadequate for their subsistence.

9. That on your petitioner's application for a gratuity the Government of India presented her with a sum of Rupees one thousand.

10. That in consideration of the services of her late husband and the cruel circumstances of the case your petitioner begs to represent that the assistance given
