Read the following paper :—

No. 336. From Lieut.-Col. P. J. MAITLAND, Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India; dated Fort William, the 1th March 1892, No. 1016-B.

Languages—Examinations.

In reply to your letter addressed to the Revenue and Agricultural Department, No. 20-D (Languages—Examinations), dated the 5th January 1892, enquiring whether the Commissioner, Northern India Salt Revenue, exercises the powers of a local Government, and can authorise the examination in oriental languages, by Military boards, of persons not in Government employ, as laid down in Article 2654, Army Regulations, India, Vol. II, Part II, I am desired to say, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the term "local Government or Administration" is used in the article above quoted in its most restricted sense, and does not include any head of a department who has, for financial or other purposes, the powers of a local Government.

2. In this view, the Government of India do not consider that the Commissioner, Northern India Salt Revenue, has the powers of a local Government under Article 2654, Army Regulations, India, Vol. II, Part II.

No. 10-B.

Copy forwarded to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Military Department, for the information of the Governor in Council, and for guidance.
