A special order with
of course to require for the delegation. The person in question has never yet
been delegated to S. E.
nor does that seem
necessary for such a case.
But it may be a convenience for Chief Engineer to communicate direct with the Director General, or make visits in the details of machinery required, without the necessity of a reference
forward over each letter,
and I therefore concur in
E. D.'s suggestion -

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., dated 25th June 1891, No. 483, Educational.

ABSTRACT.—Passing orders relative to the preparation of a schedule showing the classes of appointments to which the Primary School examination rules are to be made applicable, and directing that the notification instituting the examination be modified and re-published in the Fort St. George Gazette.

*1928 W.D.

READ—also file of replies to the above order.

ORDER—dated 23rd April 1892, No. 341, Educational.

Upon consideration, the Government thinks it better not to prescribe minima of height and chest-girth by general order, but to leave the matter to the discretion of Heads of Departments.

2. In paragraph 2 of its Proceedings, dated the 11th September 1891, No. 413 (Separate Revenue), the Board of Revenue is understood to recommend that the compulsory portion only of the Primary School examination shall be required in the case of petty officers and first-grade peons in the Salt and Abkari Department, and that peons of the second and third grades shall be exempted altogether from the examination rules. The Government is not prepared to adopt this suggestion at present; it should first be established that recruitment under the existing rules is impossible.

3. The Board further suggests in the same Proceedings that the Primary School examination notification should be declared not to be applicable to "inferior" appointments in Orissa. This recommendation the Government accepts, for it is impossible to conduct the examination in that district; but it should be understood that persons exempted from the examination for service in Orissa will not be eligible for transfer to districts in this Presidency unless they pass.
