READ—the following paper :—

From D. DUNCAN, Esq., M.A., D.Sc., Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 3rd May 1893, No. 1497.

I have the honour to request the favour of early orders on a question that has been raised by the Presidency Port Officer, as to whether the Examination rules are to be held as applying to appointments in which service does not qualify for pension.

2. In Notification No. 19, of the 2nd February 1893, prescribing rules for admission to the Public Service, while reference is made to "superior" appointments and "inferior" appointments, no mention whatever is made of appointments in which service is non-pensionable. As both "superior" and "inferior" service qualify for pension, it seems to me that the Examination rules cannot have been intended to apply to appointments service in which does not, under the Civil Service Regulations, qualify for pension.

ORDER—dated 19th May 1893, No. 338, Educational.

The Commissioner will be informed that the Examination rules apply to non-pensionable appointments generally.
