With reference to your No. 225 S.A., dated 22nd April 1892, I have the honour to inform you that the Collector has informed that a portion of the old taluk cutcherry is not required for keeping taluk office records and the building may be handed over to the Educational Department, but I should like to reserve the portion now occupied by Overseer, Villupuram, as his office and store-room, as houses cannot be procured at Villupuram for the office of the overseer.
