Simla the 21st April 1892.

Sir,

Flag D

With reference to your letter No. 107 dated the 1st instant, forwarding a memorial addressed to the Secretary of State by Mrs E. Taylor, widow of ——— Mr H. S. Taylor, late Superintendent of Works Periyar Project Division praying that the gratuity of Rs. 1000 sanctioned by the Government of India may be supplemented by the Home Government, I am directed to enquire whether His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that there are any

any reasons for making a special recommendation to the Secretary of State, and to request that the Local Government will be good enough to favour the Government of India with their opinion on Mrs Taylor's memorial, which is herewith forwarded for perusal and return.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

FOR ORDERS.

I am of opinion that the sentence of transportation for life should not have been passed. Still I think that there was no case for interference in the present proceedings. I agree that the petitioner's petition does not state that a pension.

28th Dec 91?

I see no reason why we should have recommended a pension for Mrs Taylor.
Act 7 of 91 to C.I. Robinson keeping out pension should be forfeited on appointment to 25th cavalry. I am prepared to make a special recommendation in her case to the effect that to give her a pension of £100 a year

I think we could only represent this case for the favourable consideration of India, if Mrs Taylor were in destitute circumstances, but as I believe there is no reason for anxiety on this score, I do not see that we can urge any "special reasons" for asking that she should receive a pension in addition to the gratuity which she has obtained.

I cannot stand out against the representations of the Chief Engineer and acknowledge the force of his arguments as regards Mrs Taylor's pecuniary position. I am therefore willing to fill in the reasons which India asks for, in her favour, on the lines of the Chief Engineer's note.

With reference to the Excellency's remark at there is no reason for anxiety on the score of Mrs Taylor's circumstances, I would submit that these circumstances are known to be about
as bad as they can be.

Mrs Taylor's letter
the 12th November
91 on which the origin
reference to India
(No 3468 W of 28th Dec 1891) was based,
gave a statement
of the property on which she had to depend.
Unfortunately the original letter was sent to Calcutta with the reference and no copy was kept in the office, but I have a tolerably clear recollection of its contents.

4. As far as I remember Mrs Taylor's resources consisted of a policy of insurance for £1000, of the amount (Rs 3544) to her husband's credit in the Civil Engineers' Provident Fund, and of the pay due to him, value of furniture sold &c — which did not exceed Rs 2000/-.

5. She also represented an income of some- where about £50 or £60 a year, for the support of herself and her son.

6. It is no doubt true that some of Mrs Taylor's relations are in fairly good circumstances but we have no ground for assuming that they will undertake the support of his widow and child. She herself has no relations in a position to help her.

7. Under the circumstances, and taking into consideration the excellent service which Mr Taylor rendered throughout his career and — especially during the last four years. I venture to suggest that the Madras Government might give their support to the memorial.

His Excellency the Governor

SIR,

In reply to your letter No. 1165 G of the 21st April 1892 I am directed to state that His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that Mrs. Taylor's memorial is worthy of favorable consideration on the grounds of her late husband's excellent service and her own almost destitute condition.

2. With regard to the former grounds the orders and reports in connection with the Peruvian Project will have kept the Govt of India informed of the admirable service rendered by the deceased officer; the difficulties experienced in the execution of this work have been of a most serious, in some respects of an unprecedented character, and the success with which they have been met has been in no small degree due to Mr Taylor's energy, devotion and professional skill.

3. With regard to

I think it a little soon to e portion

Mrs Taylor's petition, that lady's original letter of the 12th March 1891, which was forwarded to you with my letter No 3468W of 28th December 1891 contains a statement of her resources which it will be seen amount to a total capital sum of about £1500 sterling, or say an income of about £60 per annum for the support of herself and her infant son.

4. I am to say that this Government will be glad to see the most liberal view possible taken

of Mrs Taylor's request.

5. The memorial which accompanied your letter under reply is returned
herewith.
