2ND APRIL 1892, No. 407, FINANCIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

G.O., dated 28th March 1892, No. 299, Revenue.

ABSTRACT.—Approving the list of relief works selected by the Collector of Bellary, and referring to the Financial Department the question of provision of funds.

ORDER—dated 2nd April 1892, No. 407, Financial.

As the official year has ended and a provision of ten lakhs has been made in the Provincial budget estimates of 1892-93 under 33, Famine relief, no specific allotments of funds will, for some time to come, be necessary on account of any expenditure to be incurred in the Civil department for purposes of relief.

2. Collectors will be authorised to advance funds for sanctioned works and for kitchens the opening of which has been approved by the Commissioner. The debit in the accounts will, for the present, follow the usual classification, viz.—

Class of expenditure.	Head of charge.
All road and other works within the scope of section 95, Act V of 1884 (Madras) ..	Local funds.
Purchase of cloths from weavers less sale-proceeds ..	32. Miscellaneous, Provincial.
Gratuitous relief ..	33. Famine relief.
Repairs of tanks and other irrigation works ..	43. Minor works.
Advances to weavers and cultivators ..	Provincial loan and advance account.

3. Separate accounts showing famine expenditure in the affected districts under each of the above heads should be submitted to Government through the Accountant-General—

- (i) for the whole of the current year up to 31st March 1892, and
- (ii) month by month for 1892-93, so long as the distress continues.

4. The contributions payable to Local Funds in order to make good deficits arising from famine relief operations will be adjusted subsequent to the receipt of these accounts.

5. Expenditure on minor irrigation works not provided for in the Public Works budget will be met by transfers or from probable savings on the sanctioned grants. No applications for additional allotments will be entertained until the middle of July at earliest.
