Note for the Hon. Member

With reference to the Hon. Member's remark that formal medical certificates "as furnished in the rules" should be submitted by Messrs Mackenzie and Medley I would observe that "the rules" do not require a medical certificate in either case. Both officers are eligible to furlough under ordinary rules (Article 34 of the C.S. Regs.) and the only question is whether the leave should be granted or refused in view of the requirements of fairness and relief.

No formal notification on this point has yet been issued, but it is understood that leave is not to be granted except on medical certificate. It is quite certain that both officers can obtain medical certificates if necessary, but it is questionable whether it is worth while to demand them.

In Mr Mackenzie's
case it would be particularly inconvenient, as he would have to leave his work and
go in to Madras
(a hundred miles
off) at a time when he can ill be spared,
causing unnecessary
expense to the state,
and a very undesirable
interruption of work.

FOR ORDERS.

Mr Mackenzie has not submitted a medical certificate, probably not anticipating that one
would be necessary,
but the fact that his health has completely broken down from exposure and over work is well known, it is therefore hardly worth while to delay the grant of his furlough
pending the submission of a certificate.

he must obtain a

from the correspondence that Mr. Medicott can
