G.O.No.1667 W.dated 2nd.June 1892.

In G.O.No.741 W.dated 13th. March 1891, it was decided that all Government publications should be sold at the Government Press, & in view to saving both your office and mine the labour connected with this duty in connection with the issue and sale of private copies of the Government of India P.W.D. Code and standing orders, I request that I may be authorized to transfer to the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, copies of this code that have been sent to me for private sale and that the Superintendent, Government Printing, Calcutta, may be instructed to send direct to the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, the requisite number of copies of standing orders to this code for issue to private purchasers.

2. That officer has an establishment and the requisite "machinery" for such work; whereas, consequent on the abolition of the Madras Code, my staff for 20/6 0 FOR ORDERS.

I presume the work does not include cutting up & pasting
the slips.

It may seem better ascertaining what has been done & whether this office is weak in clerks and therefore support
it.

I think on the whole
the balance of advantage
is in favor of the Examiner's proposal
and therefore support
it.
