India Office,

Whitehall, S.W.

24th June 1892.

Sir,

With reference to the telegram from His Excellency the Governor of Madras, quoted in the margin, I have the honour to inform you that the contract "Please expedite despatch for Madras famine relief works, for the 30000 hammers has been divided of 30,000 hand hammers for stone-breaking" with the view of insuring rapid supply.

It is hoped that the whole quantity will be delivered during July, and the shipments will be made by instalments as soon as possible after each delivery.

I may add that helms will not be supplied with the hammers, as it is stated that they are not required in a telegram from Madras dated 11th June 1892.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

J. S. S. S.

Director General of Stores.

The Secretary to Government
Public Works Department,
Madras.
