OFFICE NOTE No.

682. C

To

W.

In the contingent bill of the Office of Superintending Engineer 4th Circle for June 1892, a sum of Rs 12-6- was charged being the payment made on account of travelling expenses from Karmur to Coimbatore and back, to one Veerasami Maistery or later Maistery Mungammar Weerappa, and was disallowed by this office with the remark that the claim should be preferred in the Travelling Allowance Bill of the office or division in which the Maistery's salary was audited.

2. The Superintending Engineer 4th circle now explains that the Maistery to whom amount was paid was not in the service of Government at the time and that he had to be sent for to be examined as a witness in a case against an Overseer. There is no rule under which the charge can be passed except under special orders of Government.

This was the case
