OFFICE NOTE No. 466-C

To

W.

There are in stock 189 copies of the Madras Code, 144 bound copies of specimen forms, together with spare copies of standing orders to both, and orders of Government are requested as to what should be done with them, now that their use has been superseded by the Government of India Code.

2. They occupy a considerable space among the records of this office, and their retention appears undesirable.

No 96 B of 3rd August 1892

Referred to the Local and Municipal Department. It is possible that the Code and Forms, though superseded as authoritative guides, may be useful as books of reference to Local Boards and if so,
Copies can be supplied.
