Case 8753

note

SK

The recent inspection
report of the Criminal division office (some
in original S.B. IV)
was very lengthy, but
the writer has just
tried to point out
what could have been better between the
S.B. of the division
accounted on the S.B.
S.B. - The report
would have been reduced by more
but one half if
more points had been omitted.

EXAMINER, P. W. ACCOUNTS.

Madras, 29. August 1892.

OFFICE NOTE No. 893. C

To

W.

Before submitting any further reports of inspections of the accounts of Divisional offices, I beg to enquire whether it is the desire of Government such reports should continue to be submitted in extenso, or whether they should be restricted to points which are of importance, or which appear to call for the orders of Government.

2. There are always a number of matters of detail, noticed at an inspection, which can be settled between the Examiner and the Executive Engineer; and it appears to me unnecessary to trouble Government with a perusal of the inspection notes upon them.

3. A reply to this will be awaited before submission of the report on the accounts of the Nellore Division, the inspection of which has just been completed.
