Order of 7th May 1888, No. 270

The Government on no occasion for the sake of the Government School ^{house} at Madanapalle ~~impose~~ to the District Board as suggested by the President, but will be prepared to make it over with furniture, library and apparatus for a period of 3 years, on loan to the Madanapalle Town High School Committee for the location of the new High School on the conditions specified in para 3 of Mr. Welch's letter No. 1122, dated 16th November 1887, viz that the Committee execute an agreement to keep the building in thorough repair and guarantee that the furniture, apparatus and library shall suffer no further deterioration than would from ordinary use, and that the building shall be made available for Middle School and other educational purposes.
