Government of Madras.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT,
Ootacamund, the 12th September 1892.

From the Superintendent of Pensions, No 1873, dated 13th July 1892, requesting to be favored with orders as to how the sum of Rupees 28 due on account of Municipal tax on that portion of the Jail Building occupied by the Pension Office at Rajahmundry for the past and current official year should be met.

Memorandum from the Public Works Department, No 88 D, dated 2nd August 1892.

From the Controller of Military Accounts, No 765, dated 26th August 1892.

Order. As the Jail Building at Rajahmundry is not a Military one, the tax due on the portion thereof occupied by the Pension Office should, as in the case recorded in Progs. of Govt. No 14348, dated 3rd July 1889, be paid by the Officer in charge of Pensioners and Family Certificate holders at that station and the same charged
