29TH AUGUST 1892, No. 1572, JUDICIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers :—

G.O., dated 20th July 1891, No. 1459, Judicial.

ABSTRACT.—Permitting the Advocate-General to appear in criminal cases in the Mofussil or on the Appellate Side of the High Court, but objecting to his appearing for defendants on the Original Side without the special sanction of Government in each case.

G.O., dated 22nd June 1892, Nos. 1156, 1157, Judicial.

ABSTRACT.—Enquiring of the Governments of Bombay and Bengal whether the practice prevailing in those provinces debars the Advocate-General and the Government Law Officer from appearing against the Crown before the High Court in appellate criminal proceedings.

READ—also the following papers :—

From the Government of Bombay, dated 26th July 1892, No. 4017.

„ „ of Bengal, „ 29th „ „ „ 3264-J.

ORDER—dated 29th August 1892, No. 1572, Judicial.

In the first of the Government Orders read above a general permission was granted to the Advocate-General to appear in criminal cases in the Mofussil and on the Appellate Side of the High Court; the advisability of determining definitely the duties of all the Law Officers of Government in this respect has since been under the consideration of Government. On further deliberation, His Excellency the Governor in Council is of opinion that the concession which was granted to the Advocate-General was too general in character, and resolves, therefore, to cancel the proceedings referred to above and to issue the following rules for the guidance of the Law Officers of the Crown :—

RULES.

I. The Advocate-General and Government Pleader should not appear against the Government in any court whatsoever, without special permission, which will rarely be granted.

II. Without special sanction the Crown Prosecutor should not appear against (1) the Government in any Presidency Magistrate's Court, or (2) on the Original Side of the High Court, or (3) on the Appellate Side of the High Court against the sentence of a Presidency Magistrate in a case where the prosecution was conducted by the Crown Prosecutor.

III. The Government Solicitor should not appear against the Government in any court of original jurisdiction in the Presidency town without similar special permission. He may, however, instruct Counsel or appear, if he is qualified to do so, against Government in criminal cases on the Appellate Side of the High Court or in the Mofussil.
