GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From F. ROWLANDSON, Esq., President, Eurasian and Anglo-Indian Association of Southern India, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 29th August 1892.

The 13th Anniversary Meeting of the Eurasian and Anglo-Indian Association of Southern India will, in accordance with the articles of the Association, be held on the 7th of October next; I beg therefore to request that Government will be kindly pleased to grant their Eurasian and Anglo-Indian employes a half-holiday (leave from 2 P.M.) on that day, as has been granted on similar occasions by the Government for the past 12 years.

ORDER—dated 5th September 1892, No. 625, Public.

The half holiday asked for is sanctioned for Madras offices.
