The Board having assembled pursuant to order, proceed to examine the above-named officer and, having perused statement of case, find that he is suffering from effects of a gun-shot wound right foot contracted at Hanton, Bhamo district, Burma, on 2nd March 1891, while assisting in repelling an attack by a body of Kachins. Wound caused considerable loss of bone substance right foot, and he is at present unable to walk except with considerable difficulty and with aid of a stick and special appearance. The Board are of opinion that the injury is so severe in its permanent effects as to be nearly equivalent to the loss of a limb.
