PADUGUPAD,
12th April 1890.

This is to certify that clerk P. Manicka Mudaliar served under my orders from the time I came into the Sangam Sub-Division till the time I left it viz, May 89 to April 90: during this period he as usual conducted his duties in an entirely satisfactory and praiseworthy manner. I cannot speak too highly of his knowledge of the works in the Sangam Project. He has been employed on the project work almost from its commencement and he is therefore so conversant with almost every work connected with the project that his removal from the Project Sub-Division will considerably curtail and very likely throw into confusion the efficiency of the subordinate and other offices of the Sub-Division. Manickam Mudaliar is a promising young man of great respectability and will make a very useful member of the clerical and accounts branch with a little more experience.

He writes a very fair hand and has a very good knowledge of English. I shall always be glad to hear of his advancement in life.

(Signed) THAS: C. FITZGERALD,
Supervisor D. P. W.

P. Manickam Mudaly, Clerk P. W. D served me for a period of about two years and I can certify that he is a very smart clerk and accountant. He is honest, active and intelligent. His conduct has been excellent.

Supervisor.
