With reference to 18.6
reminds that there is no reason for anxiety on the score of the Taylor's circumstances. I would make attention to that lady's letter

I dated 28th December 1891, but a copy should have been put for office record.
That this was not done was an oversight on the part of Mr. Lazaro, the Sup^t of the Current Section whose duty it is to supervise the preparation of enclosures for issue.

unpleasantly on the
