Note for Hon. Member

1 I have to meet His Excellency the Governor
at the Periyar on the 12th October, and I must be there a
few days earlier in order to complete my own inspections before
his arrival.

2 I also want to have a day or two in Madras
before going to the Periyar.

3 I propose therefore
with your approval
to leave Ootacamund
for Madras on — Thursday the 29th
instant; I expect to be back at Madras
on the 16th or 17th October, and can
then hand over

You might wait for tomorrow on the 30th, leaving at 3 pm.
arriving Madras Saturday night. You could leave Madras on the 3rd March Periyar on the 5th a full week before the

W.S.

charge to Mr. Welch
before proceeding
on furlough.

4 There is no particular objection in putting Government to the expense of my
returning here or
of Mr. Welch coming down to Madras
to take over charge
from me, and I
therefore propose
to hand over charge
by telegraph from Madras, unless the Examiner raises
any objection which is not likely. All matters requiring
personal explanation
will of course be gone into with Mr.
Welch before I leave.

5 Colonel Drake - Brockman has been asked to come up
here by the morning
of the 17th to take over charge from
Mr. Welch.

6 Forwarding papers
to the Perijar and back causes a great deal of delay and I therefore propose,
subject to your approval,
that all routine
papers requiring
the orders of Government may be submitted to you direct by the
Under Secretary.
While I am there
Major Foddy
knows what papers
I should wish to have sent to me first,
and if in doubt
