2. It now appears that the stone breaking hammers in question were unseizable before they were sent from the Madura to the Bellary division. This did not appears from the former report, and the transaction is even more unsatisfactory than appeared at first sight.

Their transmission to Bellamy was a waste of public money, but their unserviceable condition having been discovered there, sanction should have been obtained to their disposal locally, instead of incurring further needless expense in returning them to Madras.
