GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
ECCLESIASTICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., dated 10th October 1889, No. 103, Ecclesiastical.

READ—also the following paper:—

From Brigadier-General H. P. PEARSON, C.B., Adjutant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Ootacamund, 1st August 1892, No. B.A.-1463.

I have the honour, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward the accompanying correspondence regarding the refusal by the clergyman in charge of the Washermanpetta Cemetery to exempt a British non-commissioned officer (Sergeant Terry) from the payment of fees for erecting a tomb over the grave of his late wife, who is interred in that cemetery.

2. The ground on which the clergyman refuses to make this concession is that in the rules for the "Washermanpetta Cemetery," no provision is made for the exemption from payment of fees of British non-commissioned officers and soldiers.

3. In Part II, Rule III, of the revised Ecclesiastical rules * contained in Proceedings of Madras Government (Ecclesiastical), No. 141, dated 17th July 1885,

* These rules are also embodied in Volume II, A.R.L., as paragraph 2844.

it is, however, laid down that regimental warrant and all British non-commissioned officers and soldiers are exempted from the payment of any fee for the erection of monuments to the memory of their comrades, wives or children in Government cemeteries, and His Excellency considers that this exemption should be held to apply to all cemeteries.

4. I am to request therefore that, in view of the removal of any doubt on this point, a clause as to the exemption of British soldiers from the payment of fees may be inserted in the rules of the Pursewalkum and Washermanpetta cemeteries and in all other similar cases in which it may have been omitted.

No. 4853.

Transferred to the Ecclesiastical Department for favour of disposal with reference to O.G., No. 141, dated 17th July 1885 (Ecclesiastical).

OOTACAMUND,
