GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers:—

G.O.s., dated 2nd November 1891 and 24th March 1892, Nos. 2252 and 602, Judicial. not received in the B. W. Seal

READ—also replies to the above.

ORDER—dated 26th October 1892, No. 2014, Judicial.

In exercise of the power conferred upon him by clauses (3) and (8) of paragraph 1 of Notification of the Government of India, in the Home Department, No. 518, dated 6th March 1879, as amended by Notification of the same Government, No. 1012, dated 29th February 1892, and in supersession of the Notification of this Government, No. 416, dated 2nd November 1891, published in the Port St. George Gazette of the 17th November 1891, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to exempt the following classes of persons from the operation of all prohibitions and directions contained in sections 13 to 16 of the Indian Arms Act, 1878, other than those relating to cannon, articles designed for torpedo service, war rockets and machinery for the manufacture of arms and ammunition, subject to the proviso that the arms or ammunition carried or possessed by such persons shall be for their own personal use and not in excess of such quantities (if any) as may have been declared by the Governor-General in Council or the Local Government to be reasonable for them to carry or possess:—

- (1) Jail Department.—Superintendents of Jails and Jailors.
- (2) Police Department.—Inspectors of Police of all classes and Sub-Inspectors of the Madras City Police.
- (3) Postal Department.—Superintendents and Inspectors of Post Offices and Mail Overseers.
- (4) Forest Department.—All gazetted officers of the Forest Department, Forest Rangers and Foresters.
- (5) Salt and Abkari Department.—All Assistant Commissioners, Inspectors and Assistant Inspectors of the Salt and Abkari Department.
- (6) Pensioners.—All pensioned officers of all Civil departments who, when in the service of Government, were entitled by general or special order to carry arms.

2. The lists called for in paragraph 2 of G.O., dated 2nd November 1891, No. 2252, Judicial, having now been received, the Governor in Council is further pleased to direct that it be laid down in departmental orders that the following officers are required to carry arms, on the occasions specified opposite to their names, in the performance of their duty within the meaning of section 1 (b) of the Indian Arms Act, 1878:—

- (1) Jail Department.—Deputy Jailors and Warders of all grades—when on actual duty.

(2) Police Department—

(i) Head Constables and Constables—when escorting prisoners or treasure, when any serious breach of the peace occurs or is anticipated, and when they visit villages on beat duty at night or patrol high roads.

(ii) Ghât Taliaries—when they assist the regular Police in guarding roads and hill passes.

(3) Salt and Abkari Department—

(i) Sub-Inspectors, Petty officers and Peons—while (a) forming part of a treasure escort; (b) on preventive duty and when they apprehend any resistance (with the previous orders in writing of the Inspector of the circle).

(ii) Petty officers and Peons—while on treasury, platform or lineguard duty.

3. The Chief Engineer's proposal that all gazetted officers of the Public Works Department, Sub-Engineers and Supervisors may be granted a general exemption from the restrictions imposed by the Arms Act is inadmissible inasmuch as the officers of the Public Works Department are not among those who could be exempted by the Local Government under the Notification of the Government of India, dated 29th February 1892, No. 1012, Home Department.

4. With reference to the recommendations of the Postmaster-General, Government does not consider that any general order of exemption in the case of subordinate postal officials is called for, but will be prepared to entertain applications on behalf of any particular subordinate postal official or class of officials, should sufficient reason be shown.

5. In the case of the officers of the other departments, the replies from which have been read above, the Government considers that their inclusion in paragraph 2 of these Proceedings is either unnecessary or inexpedient.
