Application from Agt. Sub Divisional Clerk C. Vadachellam Head of Bellary Sub Division to the Sub Divisional Officer Bellary dated 7th October 1892. 327/1

I beg respectfully to state, that in G. O. N^o 3884, C dated 19th August 1892 an allowance of one rupee was sanctioned for doing Sub-division work and this allowance ceased on the 26th September 1892 and I am still in charge of Sub-division work. I beg that you will be pleased to recommend for an extension till I am relieved from my duties as acting Sub Divisional Clerk.

I further beg to bring to your notice that in many Divisions all unpassed clerks draw Rupees 19-8-0 while I draw only Rs 19.

My service in the Department is about 27 years and most part of it I was acting for Sub-divisional clerks, and afforded satisfaction. I therefore beg that your honor will be pleased to recommend my case for for favorable consideration in granting the pay I am entitled to viz $19-8-- an Overseer's writer.

For which act of kindness I shall feel grateful.

Recommended.

2. The rules do not allow of the clerk's request in para 2 of his petition being complied with (vide S. O. No 479 dated 10-9-88) but it is recommended that he may be exempted from the examination rules at least so far as the grade of clerk V class 1st Grade is concerned.

3. He has on several occasions discharged the duties of a Sub-divisional Clerk satisfactorily.

Endorsement of the Public Works Department, of 21st October 1892 No. 569 D.

Order 5 November 1892 No. 493.

This Excellency the Governor-in-Council is of opinion that no sufficient grounds has been shown for exemption in this case.

2. The papers will be retransferred to the Public Works Department in order that inquiry may be made into the alleged practice of retaining unpaired men on reduced salaries.

The statement made by the clerk in para 2 of his petition, viz, that all unpassed clerks in many divisions draw Rs. 19-8-0 per mensem is not correct. There are a few clerks drawing that rate of pay under the rules in force at the time of their appointment.
