PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper:—

From the Superintendent, Archaeological Survey, Madras, of 26th September and 28th October 1892 Nos. 356 and 399 respectively, forwarding copy of a letter from the Collector of Thiruvannamalai and submitting a report regarding the marble left at the Annamalai stupa.

Order 29th November 1892 No. 826.

The Government does not consider the retention of the watchmen services necessary. They should be dispensed with. The stones to be left as they are. The Collector will issue instructions to the village authorities to prevent their being disturbed.
