GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

To

The Under Secretary

to H.E. the Governor

Madras

The humble petition of Mrs R. Frances widow of the late M. Frances, Asst

Overseer N.P.W.

Sheweth

That Petr, with reference to G.O. No. 2840 of 12th Oct 92, on Petrs memorial of 1st Oct 92, begs most humbly to represent that she did not claim any gratuity on the ground that her late husband died on the eve of drawing pension, but that she prayed for a compensation allowance in order to support her large family of eight children or at any rate to see her two eldest sons employed in the Railway or elsewhere by the aid of the above allowance which will go towards giving Security for the arrears.

2nd Act Petr begs that Govt will graciously be pleased to grant the above allowance; since Petr is unable to support his family on the present rate

And Petr as in duty bound will ever pray
