GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—dated 6th December 1892, No. 710, Political.

His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that, with reference to recent events at the Periyár, it would be more satisfactory to all concerned were the system of dual control in the matter of the sale and purchase of intoxicating liquors in the camps to cease. The Resident in Travancore will accordingly be requested to place the matter before the Travancore Durbar and to ascertain whether it is willing to lease to the Madras Government the exclusive right of the sale of liquors in the camps and a radius of three miles around them, and, if so, for what sum per annum.

2. The Madras Government is anxious, if the Travancore Government agrees to the proposal now made, that arrangements should be concluded as early as possible, and to this end is prepared to pay any reasonable compensation which may be necessary to immediately terminate any existing leases.

3. The Resident will assure the Travancore Government that, in the event of the lease being granted, the strictest attention will be paid to the Travancore Abkari Regulation by the Superintendent of the works and the British officers.
