Ans

Col. Bowen states that he purposes applying for furlough from 10th July 1892. In view to his average salary being calculated he requests that the temporary steps he would have been granted to during those years prior to that date, had he remained in service, may be formally declared by this Govt.

He was promoted to Capt. 2nd class permanent on 8.6.88. What he remained in the service to the next Govt. he would have been promoted to S.S. 1st class temporary on 30.10.88 - He would have held such temporary rank continuously to 30.7.90 when he was promoted to S.S. 1st class

8.1
P.W. 771/92

It does not seem necessary to go further than this, as promotion to the Chief Engr. Class is a matter of selection, & Col. Bowen refused promotion to that class in the modern M.D.

Perhaps a note for orders to the above effect might be submitted to the Hon.

Can
27.1.92

Better L.O. for Col's orders as the point raised - obviously Col. Bowen would have been promoted in the Chief Engr. Class such promotion as it was offered to him - and if admitted
- he should have his standing of this.

Col. Bowen's Case

with reference to the this matter, please Co. No 8 W 76.1.87.
Colonel Bowen went to Mysoor on the understanding that his local rank would be one step higher than than his position in the modern M.D.

When his turn came for temporary promotion on the modern list, the Mysoor Govt.
was informed of this fact,
& he received in Mysoor promotion to the next higher grade -

Now when Mysoor
was informed in letter No 3520 W 76.11.88 that Col. Bowen would have been promoted to S.S.I Class Temporary ^{from 30.10.88} had he remained at Madras,
he received in Mysoor
the local rank of Ch. Engr. III Class. His local rank he has continued to hold up to date, for he was promoted to S.S.I Class permanent on 30.7.90.

On previous occasions similar intimation was given to Mysore.

After his promotion to J.S.I. Class permanent, no further intimation was made to Mysore, because promotion to Chief Surg. is a matter of selection. Col. Bowen declined the offer in that Class offered to him by the Indian Govt.

In his present letter, Col. Bowen probably desires that the temporary steps in the Ch. Surg. class to which he would have been appointed were declared because the steps in the Surg. class were notified to Mysore.

The rules do not say whether the benefit only under article 18 C.S.R., of an officer in Col. Bowen's position, should be calculated on his substantive app't. or in own list, or on such temporary steps as he would have held had he gone on foreign service.

As it is impossible to say what temporary steps Col. Bowen might have received had he remained with Madras, facts may must apparently be calculated on his pay of his substantive appointment.

Col. Bowen has the advantage of the rule sent above that of his permanent rank in the department.

This promotion also not follow that of my other officer (as in the case of the former) as he belongs to, and is based on, the permanent establishment of the department.

It being my intention to take furlough to Europe from 10th July next, I have the honor to inform you that I recently addressed the Examiners of Public Works Accounts (copy of my letter is annexed) to ascertain what would be the rate of my furlough pay. I attach copy of his reply from which you will observe that the Examiners takes no account of any temporary or sub-pro-tem steps which I might have received during the last 3 years, had I been present on duty in the Department in the Presidency during that period. 2. - I have the honor to request you will be good enough to lay the question before granted to in the period named,

FOR ORDERS.

It is perfectly impossible to state what temporary or sub pro tem promotion might have been received by Colonel Bowen
had he remained on duty in the Madras Presidency. As a matter of fact he did not so remain,
and his average pay for furlough purposes must be calculated on the pay of the rank which he actually held in the department.

Besides the impossibility of answering

a purely hypothetical question, it is necessary to consider that Colonel Bowen cannot claim at the same time the advantages which he has actually received from his transfer to Mysore and those which he might have obtained from remaining in Madras.

What were the arrangements as to regulation of his salary? Does not his promotion follow that of certain Officers of his standing?

But even if it does, or did, furlough pay can only be calculated on pay actually drawn, & if Col. B. has not drawn
 s. p. t. or temp. pay, he cannot want any such in the calculation of his furlough pay. If he had been entitled to any such s. p. t. or temp. pay, he would no doubt have claimed it before now.

The ^{request} seems inadmissible
