The point is we must either cut down on separate files or up upon overseas request for Kennard Dir. We have had no further requisition from III. Ailer, but demand for more men will be made come in shortly.
 Two of the men mentioned in the list attached to G.O. No at Belga. Perhaps W's orders may be taken as to ending end of this week as to ending orders to wire for these people to India. C. Allen.

FOR ORDERS.

I am inclined to doubt whether we shall want any more men.

The Consulting Engineer for Railways states that he can provide two officers and nine upper subordinates in addition to Messrs. Pary, Nixon and Verrieres, whose services have already been applied for.

Engineer students who have lately completed their practical course can be appointed temporary Assistant Engineers, and Mr Lacey Asst. Engineer 2nd grade, now at the Periyar can be spared in a few days.

I think this will provide for all we are likely to want.

If absolutely necessary two or three more officers can be obtained by doubling up the Tanjore and Negapatam Divisions, which I have for some time contemplated proposing, and by placing one
