Harbour Survey Investigation

398A
1 Feb. 1892

Dear Mr. Price

The last week has been one of such perfectly good weather that by taking every opportunity to work I have finished off all my observations at sea.

2. I am still hampered by Boring operations, but on Saturday I resolved to make a clean sweep of all the men except the Foreman, and with the most encouraging results. I therefore hope that I shall be able to telegraph (or through Willock) that the R200 asked for by me in my official letter No. 40 of Jan 27. will not be wanted. But when I wrote that letter it seemed probable that I might have to put on men at very high rates for some time.

3. Except the Boring work I shall have done my investigation

2. The following telegram will be despatched:-

by February 13th - but it is not desirable that I should go away so near as possible to that date although I hoped, when I first arrived, that I might do so.

4. I thought it extremely likely that the 2 months proposed by Sir A. Rendel might extend themselves into 3 months, and on February 13th I shall have been here eleven weeks, but unless a serious hitch now occurs with Borrings I shall have got all possible information in that time, and an additional week is required for putting all together and settling accounts.

5. I therefore propose to leave here on February 22nd and catch the mail steamer of Feb. 27th at Bombay (in which vessel amongst others I engaged a passage home when I arrived).

6. By the terms of the S. of State's letter (in G.O. 2982 W. 18th Nov 1891) I have to submit my report, apparently, to the Secretary of State and in conjunction with Sir A. M. Rendel, I therefore do not know how far I ought to commit myself before I see him - but I feel so sure that the conclusions I have arrived at are sound that I think there is no fear of Sir A. Rendel's going against them, so I am ready to state briefly what I think should be done here if the Govt. of Madras approve - 2988/2

7. I now ask that you will kindly send me a note or a telegram (say Feb 15th) telling me that I may pass through Madras on Feb. 25th (of course supposing, as I said, that no serious hitch occurs meanwhile) and report myself to you, or to Mr. S. the Governor, or do anything in the way of answering questions on my way through, without being detained to catch another mail. In the meantime if a brief report is desired I will submit an Official Statement of what I have done & what I propose.

8. All expenditure is being strictly accounted for and I really hope that for a moderate outlay I can suggest something that may make this a very useful Port, and for a great outlay makes a really excellent Harbour.

I am very dear Sir
Yours obediently
H. Thoroughgood.

There appears no objection to the despatch of the telegram asked for in para 7, and
"brief report" suggested in the last part of the same para is certainly desirable.
