PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper:—

From the Collector, Vizagapatam, dated 25th January 1892 N^o 176.

x with Command to P. W. H.

With reference to G.O. N^o 1275 dated 9th December 1891, I have the honor to submit a fresh proposition statement for Mr. Thoroughgood's establishment six instead of four boatmen had to be engaged owing to no steam launch being available but they are only paid Rs 12 each. Eight survey lascars have been employed as the old surveys were found grossly inaccurate and much additional survey work had to be done in consequence. They are drawing Rs 6 instead of Rs 7 as also are the peons. On the whole, there is a saving of Rs 94 per mensem against which has to be put the pay of the D.P.W. surveyor attached to Mr. Thoroughgood and the fact that he is managing without a steam launch. I request that the revised proposition statement may be sanctioned.

Order: 9th February 1892 N^o 162
The proposition statement is sanctioned -
